Shawn Matthewson reviewed with the Committee the draft 2014 SPAC meeting schedule and it was agreed upon by members that since January 1st being the 1st Wednesday of the month, the meeting instead be moved to January 8th. In addition, the September 3rd meeting shall be moved to September 10th.

5.5 Presentation list for 2014
Shawn Matthewson asked Committee members for their ideas on presenters they would like lined up for 2014 and to respond back to her through email. Topic suggestions included; $10 a day child care, post-secondary education in our community, the new Fraser Health housing position, and senior's network update.

5.6 Request for funding Community Network Coordinator

The Committee received the request for funding the Community Network Coordinator. An increase from $25000 to $30,000 was requested. Staff suggested that we look at the SPAC budget. Councillor Ashlie suggested that we ask for an increase from the gaming funding.

5.7 BC Non-Profit Housing Conference
Siobhan Murphy reported to Committee members on the recent Non-profit Housing Conference.

5.8 Cities Fit for Children Conference
Shawn Matthewson reported on the Cities Fit for Children Conference she recently attended in Surrey. Councillor Bob Masse brought to the Committees attention to a new report out called the "Human Capital Report" by the world economic council.

5.9 Housing Planning Table Request - Motion to Council
Siobhan Murphy reported on the Regional Transit Working Group which has been working with local Housing Planning Tables to address a number of issues facing people who are homeless or living in poverty. Their work has been forwarded to the Housing Planning Table and was requested that the Social Planning Advisory Committee forward the following motion to Mayor and Council to endorse:

Original motion: "Call on TransLink to establish a task force with representation of provincial ministries responsible for public transit, health and housing, and the Regional Transit Working Group, with the purpose of developing a Regional Homeless Transit Plan that will make the system accessible to homeless people while minimizing costs to TransLink, and;

Request that TransLink includes a reduced fare option for individuals on income assistance along the lines of those now in place for persons with disabilities and low income seniors."

in It was reported that Community Network is bringing Translink in as a delegation
March, so a report will be brought back to SPAC at that time.

R13-0356 It was moved and seconded
That SPAC forward the above Translink motion to Maple Ridge council for endorsement . .

DEFERRED

- 5.10 Motion from Council dated November 12, 2013
Shawn Matthewson reported on a recent motion from Council that stated “That the issue of enforcement of the Motor Vehicle Act to enforce the Motor Vehicle Act as it pertains to the safe operation, wearing of helmets and proper illumination of bicycles or other motorized vehicles be referred to the Maple Ridge Social Planning Advisory Committee and the RCMP for input by the first quarter in 2014”.

Ms. Matthewson stated that SPAC and RCMP have been included in this conversation to determine which groups of individuals in the downtown core fit this profile as stated in the recommendation. Sgt. Rob Wheeler stated that Inspector Flugel is asking officers to interview individuals fitting certain descriptions to find out what activities they are participating in the downtown core.

Bob Goos stated the emphasis of this is a criminal activity investigation and a safety issue to see where bikes are being ridden and how.
A report will be coming back to SPAC at the January meeting.

5 Unfinished Business

- 6.1 Canadian Rental Housing Charter Update
Shawn Matthewson reported that the Canadian Rental Housing Charter is something which many municipalities have signed on to, and further suggested recommendation be sent to Maple Ridge Council to have our community sign on to this charter. This item was tabled until the January meeting.
