INFORMED: Haney Farmers Market Under Cover

Market Season Comes to an End on November 10

The Haney Farmers Market is under cover at 'South Park' on the south side of Memorial Peace Park next to the Walmart parking lot. Large and small tents will be strategically aligned to protect market visitors from whatever Mother Nature throws at us in the Fall.

There's a great selection of fall vegetables, incredible baking and preserves among the vendors for the last couple of weeks of market shopping. On November 3 and November 10 the market will be conducting a Toy Drive to collect items for the 2018 Christmas Hamper Program.

As the market season comes to an end it's a great time to buy your 2019 'Friend of the Market' membership or pick up gift certificates as stocking stuffers for Christmas. Gift certificates are packaged in $10 increments and your 'Friend of the Market' $20 membership donation includes a $10 market coupon gift.

Stop by the Haney Farmers Market between 9:00 am and 2:00 pm on Saturday mornings. For more information on the market go to haneyfarmersmarket.org

INSPIRED: Remembrance Day 2018

Join Your Neighbours at Memorial Peace Park

On Sunday, November 11 our community will come together to honour those who serve and have served our nation. Memorial Peace Park gets its name from the Cenotaph and memorial garden located at the west side of the park. If you look closely at the Cenotaph you will see the names of the young citizens who lost their lives far from our community in our Armed Forces.

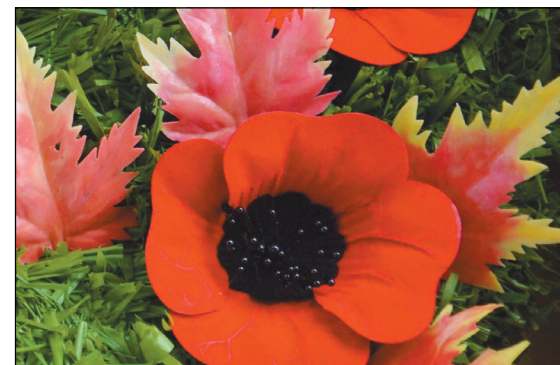

A century ago there were millions of people lined up across trenches in Europe during what we now call World War I. Over the next couple of years families here in Maple Ridge learned that their loved ones would not be returning from 'The Great War.' Today, walking among us are men and women who serve or have served our nation around the world in combat roles and as peacekeepers. On November 11 we ask you to invest a couple of hours to remember those who did not return and honour those who walk amongst us. Lest We Forget.

224 Street will be car free during the parade and ceremony and road closures will begin at 10:00 am with the full ceremony running until noon.
