EXPLORING OUR NATURE

Celebrating Canada's 150: Exploring Our Nature in Maple Ridge

Célébrer le 150^e anniversaire du Canada: explorons la nature de Maple Ridge

CULTURE WALK - EXPLORING OUR NATURE JUNE 4TH FROM 1:00 - 4:00 PM

Experience Maple Ridge's landscape, history and neighbourhoods in new ways through encounters and activities at locations within Kanaka Creek Regional Park, and at the Maple Ridge Museum and Haney House. Join Artists-in-Residence Robi Smith and Kat Wahamaa, Kwantlen First Nation cultural teacher and storyteller Fern Gabriel, biologist and geologist David Cook from Nature Vancouver, the Maple Ridge Community Heritage Commission, the Maple Ridge Historical Society, the Dewdney Alouette Railway Society and the Kanaka Education & Environmental Partnership Society (KEEPS) for a fun and inspirational afternoon. Create a nature mandala at Cliff Park using found materials, take a walking tour to learn about local First Nations stories and traditions, hunt for new history-focused geocaches in the area, take a walking tour focusing on nature and the physical environment, take in tours and exhibits at Maple Ridge Museum and Haney House, including a fascinating miniature train world, and learn about environmental stewardship with KEEPS. This Culture Walk celebrates Metro Vancouver Regional Park's 50th anniversary. Free event. Everyone welcome.

Car pool, bike, walk or take the shuttle bus from the four event sites. The shuttle bus will be running on a continuous loop stopping approximately every 15 minutes to pick up/drop off at: Cliff Park, Kanaka Creek Park, Fraser Riverfront, Maple Ridge Museum and Haney House.
