

Tourism and Economic Development Advisory Committees

Your City Needs You.
Your Knowledge. Your Experience. Your Unique Perspective.

The Ask. The City of Maple Ridge has a number of Advisory Committees and Commissions that provide opportunities for citizens to become more actively involved in their community, to consider issues in depth and to provide advice to staff and Council. This advice provides Council with important background information and unique perspectives to help guide them as they discuss and debate important policies and programs for our City.

Your Commitment. Advisory Committee appointments are for a one or two year term. Committee members will invest approximately six hours a month in their committee work.
