MID MONTH UPDATE: May 2014

SPOTLIGHT ON: Be Part of a Food Revolution

The Haney Farmers Market is Back for Year Ten

On Saturday, May 17 The Haney Farmers Market is celebrating Jamie Oliver's Food Revolution Day. The market runs from 9:00 am until 2:00 pm at Memorial Peace Park on 224 Street between Lougheed Highway and Dewdney Trunk Road.

Last weekend the market officially kicked off the year with a birthday celebration and the annual tradition of the cutting of the ceremonial carrot cake. This weekend you can enter the kids recipe contest and enjoy a live cooking demonstration from Chef Mike Mulcahy from Big Feast. Mike and his great food are going to be featured in an upcoming episode of 'You Gotta Eat Here' on the Food Network.

There's also going to be other great recipes, tasting and the usual cornucopia of great local produce, baking, preserves and crafts. 'Viva La Revolution' this weekend at the Haney Farmers Market.

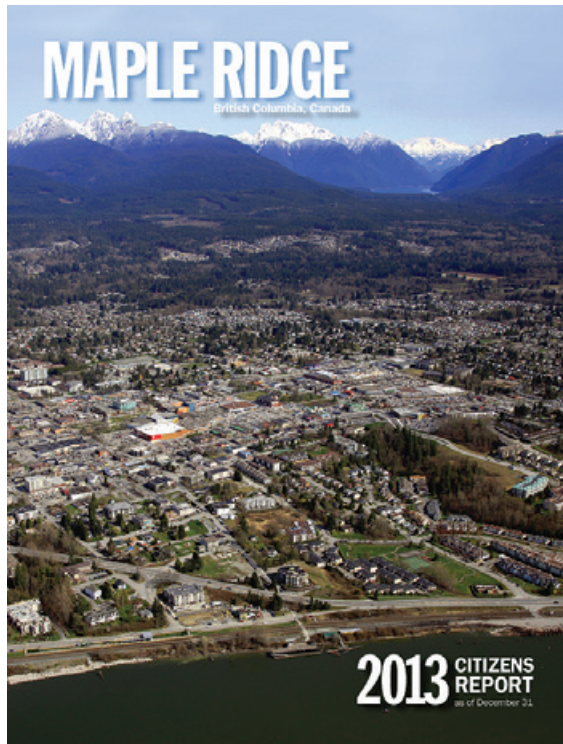

INFORMED: 2013 Citizens Report

The Latest Citizens Report is Available in Print and Online

At the beginning of the month we unveiled the 2013 Citizens Report as part of the Maple Ridge booth at the Home Show. This 48 page magazine is packed with information that you might find interesting. The expanded financial section has charts and information on the District population growth over the last century, key data on property values and taxation and the full audited financial statements for the District.

The publication also highlights the work done in 2013 in each division, has great information on the work of the RCMP and Fire Department in our community and some special features including a feature article on one of our longest serving community volunteers, Bill Archibald.

There's a year in review in photos, featuring some of the amazing images from the local newspapers and a great photo essay called 'Your Maple Ridge: 24 Hours' that shows that our community never sleeps. You can pick up a copy at the Hall or go online and view the 2013 Citizens Report using an online tool called 'FlippingBook.' This publication is a great way to get to know your community better and celebrate our accomplishments in 2013. The online version of the Citizens Report can be found at mapleridge.ca under the 'Your Government' tab. Let us know what you think.

#MyHammond

The Hammond Area Planning Process gets underway with an open house that will be held at the Hammond Community Centre from 4:00 pm until 8:00 pm. The Hammond Community Centre is located at 20601 Westfield Avenue and the meeting is a drop in style affair that will be jammed packed with information and activities. We are still encouraging folks to take photos and be part of the #MyHammond Photo Project, and the sooner you get your photos posted the better! We will be presenting some of these images as part of the Open House.

There's going to be a number of displays in the Hammond Community Centre, from the photos you've taken as part of the #MyHammond photo project to maps and background information that we will be seeking your input on. We are also very excited to debut a video project featuring some of the folks that grew up in Hammond and their memories of life in their youth.

We are hoping that you take time from your busy schedule to be part of this first Community Open House so you can get connected with this project. Look for ads in the local papers and be part of shaping your community for future generations!
