City of Maple Ridge Recognizes Maple Ridge Medalists at 2018 BC Summer Games

Maple Ridge, BC: On July 19, 2018 the BC Summer Games began in the Cowichan Valley where local communities were incredible hosts to thousands of athletes from around British Columbia. At the end of the ceremony, the official Games flag was passed on to Fort St. John, host of the 2020 BC Winter Games and, at the conclusion of the 2020 BC Winter Games, the flag will be passed to the City of Maple Ridge as they prepare to host of the 2020 BC Summer Games from July 23-26.

“On behalf of my colleagues on Council, I want to commend the Cowichan Valley communities for their superb work hosting our young athletes,” said Mayor Nicole Read. “We are inspired by the hospitality, passion and creativity of the incredible volunteers and organizers from the 2018 BC Summer Games. All of us on Council would like to congratulate our local athletes who competed in this year’s Games and to recognize the local coaches, mentors and volunteers who supported our young athletes as they trained for and competed on the Provincial stage. We are so proud of all of you.”
