Council Schedule & Committee Appointments Part of First Meeting Agenda

Maple Ridge, BC: On Tuesday, November 13 Maple Ridge council will establish the meeting schedule for the next year, Acting Mayor appointments and the Council representation Intergovernmental boards, Advisory Groups, Committees and Community Organizations.

“I’ve had the opportunity to consult with my colleagues on Council and I’m very excited to be able to tap the knowledge and passion around our table to sit on important intergovernmental committees and engage with the dedicated volunteers who are part of our advisory boards, committees and key community organizations,” said Mayor Mike Morden.

He added, “While Council hasn’t yet had the opportunity to have a fulsome discussion around the committees that are in place, as well as any gaps, we believe it’s important to recognize and appreciate the expertise in our community as we tackle local issues. We all look forward to our first meetings with these groups in the coming days and weeks.”
