Artist In Residence Open House on January 5, 2014 At 2:00 Pm and Application Deadline January 13, 2014 for Haney Residence

Maple Ridge, BC: Maple Ridge, BC: An Open House for the Haney Residence in the Artist in Residence Program in Maple Ridge and Pitt Meadows will be scheduled for January 5 between 2:00 - 3:30 pm, at 11630 224 Street, Maple Ridge. Artists and artist teams interested can see the inside of the property being considered in their proposals and applicants are encouraged to bring their questions. Please RSVP by emailing Yvonne Chui. The application deadline is January 13, 2014.

The program is designed to support artists and the community on topics of interest or concern and provides the artist(s) with subsidized access to studio and/or live-in space for a period of time. The Haney Residence is a live-in house with an unfinished basement for studio work situated in the historic waterfront Port Haney. The space is 100% subsidized (excluding utilities, cable and tenant improvements) in exchange for a minimum number of community art engagement hours on approved projects/programs developed in collaboration between staff, artist(s) and community groups/centres.

For details and proposal instructions please visit our website.

The Artist in Residence Program is open to Canadian artists (individuals or creative teams) in all artistic disciplines and mediums. We are seeking proposals that promote meaningful exchange between the community and contemporary art and artist(s).
