The City of Maple Ridge Park Gift & Donation program provides opportunities for individuals and groups to contribute gifts in recognition of loved ones, organizations, significant events or achievements. The gifts and donations in this catalogue provide community benefits and enhance the City's public spaces through functional, engaging and attractive amenities that recognize your chosen cause in a long lasting, meaningful way.

FEES & CHARGES

Individuals who would like to donate park assets such as benches, drinking fountains, picnic tables, and park trees can do so by paying a fixed donation amount. These types of donations are typically less than $5,000. The donated amount cover the costs of purchasing and installing the amenity, as well as the cost of maintenance to ensure the gift remains in good condition for a ten-year term.

SIGNIFICANT OR LEGACY GIFTS & DONATIONS

Significant or legacy donations are for individuals, community groups businesses, or service clubs wishing to donate or contribute more specialized amenities such as playground equipment, picnic shelters, outdoor fitness equipment, or other types of park amenities. These types of park amenities are generally valued above $5,000.

Requests outside of our Standard Park Gift Options will be reviewed by staff to determine the design, installation and maintenance costs. Once staff has gathered the necessary information, they will contact the potential donor to discuss their options and the cost for the proposed donation.

To get started, email parkgift@mapleridge.ca to share your idea or for more information.
